

Medical Laboratory Technologist I

Part Time positions available

Kelsey Trail is looking for Medical Laboratory Technologists, who are team-orientated, enjoy challenging and rewarding careers, want to live in a safe and affordable community and will make a difference in the delivery of quality healthcare. These positions will perform laboratory duties for the detection, prevention and management of physiological and pathological conditions.

Job description available upon request.

EDUCATION, KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS & ABILITIES:

- Medical Laboratory Technology diploma
- Certified by the Canadian Society for Medical Laboratory Science
- Licensed and registered by the Saskatchewan Society of Medical Laboratory Technologists
- Basic computer skills
- Analytical Skills
- Interpersonal, organizational and communication skills
- Ability to work independently
- Valid Driver's License, where required by the job

Kelsey Trail is a progressive, innovative employer that provides career opportunities for more than 1600 healthcare workers. We provide one of the most competitive salary and benefit packages of any employer in Northeast Saskatchewan. Attractions within our Region include: golfing, fishing, hunting, camping, downhill and cross-country skiing and much much more!

Successful applicants may be eligible for signing bonuses and relocation assistance for relocating and working within Kelsey Trail Health Region.

Please submit your application to:

Human Resources Department
Kelsey Trail Health Region
Box 1480, Melfort, SK S0E 1A0
Fax: (306) 752-2276

Phone: (306) 752-7581 Email: employment@kthr.sk.ca

www.kelseytrailhealth.ca

The successful applicant must undergo a satisfactory criminal record check.

The interest of all candidates is appreciated; however only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Kelsey Trail Health Region is committed to a Representative Aboriginal Workforce